

2. Monitor and tune the Oracle applications for performance. Which includes database sizing, space management, table re-organization and/or partitioning.

