RESOLUTION ON THE 15TH ANNUAL CHICAGO CHILDREN'S ESSAY CONTEST
2001 AMBASSADORS OF ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

WHEREAS British Airways sponsored the Fifteenth Annual Chicago Children's Essay Contest to promote excellence in writing skills; and

WHEREAS the contest encouraged students to write about London and Chicago, and to compare two significant events or characteristics about Chicago with two about London; and
WHEREAS the contest was a part of the Write Well writing initiative; and

WHEREAS the contest winners were:
Tommy Ramirez, fifth grade student at Greengarden School, Graham Rosby, sixth grade student at LaSalle Language Academy, Mandy Meehan, seventh grade student at Edison Regional Gifted Center, and Karen Zava, eighth grade student at Peterson School, were the winners; and

WHEREAS these four outstanding young people are awarded the title of Ambassadors of Academic Excellence and each of them and one of their parents will be awarded a one-week trip to London, England, this summer, valued at $6,000 per winner, through the generosity of British Airways;
