Coaches will be responsible to develop an Individual Learning Plan for each Chicago Teaching Fellow that will focus on special education. In addition, coaches will provide a Mid-Year Review and a Growth Reflections Tool for each Fellow that will assess their performance as a Teacher of Record and serve as the basis for the following year's professional growth and instructional planning.

In addition to the 1:1 coaching relationship established between the coach and Fellow, the Consultant will

- Monthly After-School Seminars – Coaches and CNTC staff will lead up to six two-hour after-school seminars that serve as an ongoing new teacher network for professional learning, problem solving, and mutual support. The seminars will be aligned with the Illinois Professional Teaching Standards and target three strands: issues in teaching, field-based research, and assessment.
