		-
		·
WHEREAS, on May 11, the reasons for the reco	2009, the Chief Executive Officer submitted writt commendations, to the Board to dismiss the fo	ten recommendations, including illowing probationary appointed the reasons for the rec	2009, the Chief Executive Officer submitted writtommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fold Rule 4-7b.2(b) and 105 ILCS 5/34-84:	ten recommendations, including ollowing probationary appointed the reasons for the rec	ommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fo	ollowing probationary appointed
the reasons for the rec	ommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fo	ollowing probationary appointed
the reasons for the rec	ommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fo	ollowing probationary appointed
the reasons for the rec	ommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fo	ollowing probationary appointed
the reasons for the rec	ommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fo	ollowing probationary appointed
the reasons for the receiveacher pursuant to Board	ommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fold Rule 4-7b.2(b) and 105 ILCS 5/34-84:	ellowing probationary appointed
the reasons for the rec	ommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fo	ollowing probationary appointed
the reasons for the receiveacher pursuant to Board	ommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fold Rule 4-7b.2(b) and 105 ILCS 5/34-84:	ellowing probationary appointed the reasons for the receive teacher pursuant to Board	ommendations, to the Board to dismiss the fold Rule 4-7b.2(b) and 105 ILCS 5/34-84:	May 27, 2009