

and financial literacy requirements untenable; and NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: 1. During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy, Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the		WHEREAS, the Board believes the disruption to learning for the 2019-2020 school year has been
and financial literacy requirements untenable; and NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: 1. During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the		· •
and financial literacy requirements untenable; and NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: 1. During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
and financial literacy requirements untenable; and NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: 1. During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
and financial literacy requirements untenable; and NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: 1. During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
and financial literacy requirements untenable; and NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: 1. During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
and financial literacy requirements untenable; and NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: 1. During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
 NOW, THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows: During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
1. During the 2019-2020 school year to be promoted from tenth to eleventh grade students do not have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the	and fir	nancial literacy requirements untenable; and have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the	NOW,	THEREFORE, the Board hereby directs as follows:
,—.	1.	have to satisfy the requirement of successful completion of a service project either independently or in conjunction with a course offering during 9th or 10th grade, as stipulated in the High School Promotion Policy. Board Report 18-0627-PO1. These students will have to satisfy the
,
,
r		